Is This a Nation Of the Morally Brave?

By ETHAN ALLEN
HITCHCOCK, Secretary of the Interior

IT is probably asserted and claimed for our country that it is the land of the free and the home of the brave, but, while it is historically true that it is the home of the PHYSICALLY brave, it is a question in my mind whether it is not too much the land of the free and too little the land of the MORALLY brave. In other words, whether or not, in various directions, license has taken the place of liberty and corruption has run riot AT THE EXPENSE OF PATRIOTISM.

It is the smooth and machine ridden legislator, whose conscience has been cauterized by the appeals and demands of his supporters, upon whom responsibility for wrongdoing must rest.

It is the vote of such legislators which, in a large measure, governs the passage, amendment or repeal of legislation that encourages or prohibits iniquitous enactments such as, at this very moment, remain upon the statute books, in spite of my earnest appeal, year after year, to have them modified, amended or repealed, because of the unmistakable opportunity AND INDUCEMENT they offer the pension shark and the horde of unconscionable grafters, whose business it has been, and still is, TO ROB THE GOVERNMENT of the public domain.

About four years ago a special agent of the land office forwarded a report, inclosing the confession of one guilty man, who, as is usual in such cases, complaining of the unequal division of the spoils, ex-has progressed with the development of the science of sanitation and we have kept pace with the improvements. Have you? Or is your bathroom one of the old fashioned, unhealthy kind?

If you are still using the "closed in" fixtures of ten years ago, it would be well to remove them and install in their stead, snowy white "Standard" Porcelain Enameled Ware, of which we have samples displayed in our showroom.

A "Standard" Modern Bathroom will add a wealth of health to your home and will naturally increase its selling value.

If you will call we will talk the plumbing question over with you, and will give you the booklet, "Modern Home Plumbing," which contains much that you should know.

posed the action of three other confederates, who had for years systematically and illegally acquired possession of HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF ACRES of the public domain through the instrumentalities and agencies which were absolutely corrupt.

This confession occasioned the immediate and enforced retirement of the commissioner of the general land office and a prompt investigation, which developed fraudulent land transactions in many of the northwestern, Pacific coast and southwestern states.

THESE INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVED THE ARREST, INDICTMENT AND CONVICTION OF OVER SIX HUNDRED INDIVIDUALS IN OVER TWENTY OF THE STATES AND TERRITORIES, INCLUDING AMONG THE NUMBER SOME WHO HAD HITHERTO STOOD HIGH IN THE COMMUNITIES IN WHICH THEY RESIDED.

In prosecuting the investigation the department has met with many delays and distinct opposition, but its instructions to its representatives have been to proceed without fear or favor, REGARDLESS OF POSITION and influence.

Commercialism In Colleges

By Rev. W. A. BARTLETT of Chicago

IT is noticeable that quite a proportion of college presidents and other commencement speakers this summer have lamented the spirit of greed which is seen in business, government and life generally. But these educators do not have many STRONG REMEDIES to suggest for this condition. It is my belief that the spirit of many colleges and universities is becoming so commercial that it is not to be wondered at if the students in those institutions go out with the idea that EVERY MAN IS WORTH HIS PRICE. Before President Harper of the University of Chicago died he spoke of the lack of RELIGIOUS TRAINING in the colleges of the country as one of the great defects in our educational system.

There are in New England institutions, founded as purely religious and benevolent training places, which are now dominated by a COMMERCIALISM which admits of little else than the idea that a man must be trained to make his way.

A NOTED NEW YORK PREACHER TOLD ME AWHILE AGO THAT IT WAS ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE TO GET WORKERS IN HIS SUNDAY SCHOOL, BECAUSE THEY ALL WANTED PAY.

This is due in part to the tremendous expense of living in such a city. But it also grows out of a FALSE CONCEPTION of life.

Menace of Great Wealth

By T. K. WEBSTER, Millionaire Manufacturer of Chicago

THE menace in the control of all natural wealth by a few very rich families is very real to the WHOLE NATION. We all know that the 2,250,000 inhabitants of Chicago would starve in a week if the owners of the great railroads should refuse to haul to our doors the supplies that are the necessities of life.

We know also that without doubt there is truth in the charge, so often made, that the greatest legislative body of this nation, the United States senate, is owned and controlled by these great corporations that are manipulated FOR THE VERY FEW RICH FAMILIES by their hired agents.

The accumulation of great fortunes in the hands of a few families is wrong. It is not good for the country or the descendants of the families. Neither Rockefeller, the beef magnates nor any of these so called billionaires are true representatives of intelligent, progressive, humane capitalists. THEY ARE THE EXTREMES, as the sluggers are the extremes in labor's ranks.

I should much prefer to see my son a poor boy in a manual training school than to see him, like young Hyde, the heir to an income of $100,000 or $500,000 a year.

CAPITAL HAS NO RIGHT TO BRING SUFFERING TO MANY THAT THE FEW MAY HAVE AN OVERABUNDANCE.

Limitation of Wealth a Difficult Problem

By Professor JAMES WALTER CROOK of Amherst College

FORTUNES may be considered as swollen BEYOND HEALTHY LIMITS which yield from $5,000,000 to $20,000,000 a year. Let us consider the possibilities of handling such incomes. The millionaire who feels that he must pass the bulk of his wealth to heirs has a task that requires originality in arrangement. A wealthy father puts his son's wealth in trust till his thirty-second birthday, allowing him the small sum of $2,500 a year. An indulgent mother raises his income to $80,000 a year. HE IS NOW A RUINED MAN.

The three methods of relief sometimes proposed are: An arbitrary limit to the amount an individual may accumulate, progressive taxation of incomes and progressive inheritance taxes. Where should the limit be drawn?

The limitation is repressive, and is meant to be so. It would put a premium upon RELATIVE INEFFICIENCY and deprive society of the advantage of beneficial enterprises.

A progressive tax on incomes HIGH ENOUGH to accomplish the purpose aimed at has the same disadvantages.

There is left the progressive tax on inheritance. As a tax measure aiming at revenue I approve of it. It is easily collected. As a measure to limit fortunes, however, it seems to me more doubtful. To accomplish the purpose the rate must be VERY HIGH. A tax heavy enough would involve a problem of administration. Even so low a rate as 30 per cent would mean a tax of $15,000,000 for every estate of $50,000,000, and there are now many fortunes of that size.

There are said to be fifty men in Pittsburg alone whose fortunes EXCEED that amount, and in the case of some well known fortunes the tax would amount to upward of $43,000,000.

The greatest objection is the encouragement which the heavy taxation of the wealthy will give to extravagant public expenditures. Our federal financial machinery is so organized and our sources of revenue are so arranged that it is WELL NIGH IMPOSSIBLE to check extravagance. Greater financial responsibility is one of the first requirements of good government. It is a maxim of public finance that those who spend must be HELD TO ACCOUNT by those who pay.

BY THIS PLAN THE MAXIM IS REVERSED, FOR BY IT THOSE WHO PAY ARE HELD TO ACCOUNT BY THOSE WHO SPEND.

FAULTY ART OF TODAY

By EUSTACE MILES, Famous Physical Culturist

THE ART OF TODAY DOES NOT REPRESENT THE GIRL OF TODAY.

On the whole, artists represent other nature studies better than they do man and woman. The ideal human being has still to be painted IN EITHER SEX, and, as regards woman, the conventional style prevents any possibility of her being portrayed as she really is.

Athletics and many forms of exercise have made the modern girl's figure different from what it was twenty or thirty years ago, but artists still take as their models the CONVENTIONAL FORMS of old art.

WE DO NOT SEE THE FEMALE TYPE AS IT IS TODAY.

The Royal academy in London is not a national institution. If it were we should see exhibited paintings representative of the athletic life of the country. In cricket, football, golf, racing and other sports you get the HIGHEST TYPES of physical development, and these might well be portrayed in an institution to which one looks for the best presentments of all phases of English life.

State University Hospital.

BERKELEY, July 27, 1906.

The lives and the health of the students of the University of California will be safeguarded by the action which the Regents have resolved upon—the establishment of a student infirmary on the campus. Hereafter any student of the colleges at Berkeley who falls ill may claim as his right the best of modern scientific care in a ward in the Student Hospital. There will be wards for men, wards for the women students, and a surgical operating room. For his medical care the student will arrange with any physician whom he may wish to employ. Arrangements will be made whereby students who cannot afford the cost of a physician's attendance may have medical care without expense to themselves. The hospital service, including expert care by professionally trained nurses, will involve no direct expense to the student. The support of the hospital will be provided for by increasing the existing gymnasium fee from $1.50 to $4 a term, and devoting $2.50 of this to the hospital. This means that at an expense of fifty cents a month every student of the colleges at Berkeley will be enabled to insure himself against the heavy and unexpected cost which an illness now implies.

The student hospital will be on the grounds of the University. * * * Just such student hospitals, conducted by the University, and maintained by a fee required from the entire student body, are now maintained by Harvard, Princeton, Amherst, Alabama, Iowa, Illinois, and other American Universities. The students of Stanford University are required to pay such a fee. The typhoid epidemics at Harvard, Amherst, Stanford, and Cornell have shown how invaluable such an institution becomes in times of emergency.

A Home Wedding.

Earl S. Wakeman and Miss Harriet Stillson were united in marriage last Wednesday afternoon, August 1, at the home of the bride's parents in Palo Alto.

Under the white bell, in a room hung with smilax and banked with sweet peas, the two young people were made husband and wife by a well selected ceremony and the token of a ring—the Rev. C. G. Baldwin of the Palo Alto Congregational Church officiating.

After congratulations and cool refreshments Mr. and Mrs. Wakeman took the train for San Francisco, en route for the East.

Relatives and friends left behind in both Campbell and Palo Alto are pleased with the event, but hope that the honeymoon and the advanced studies at Oberlin will not keep them too long away.

The PRESS extends best wishes for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Bonds Carry.

Considering the importance of the matter, a very light vote was cast today in county, but the returns are favorable it is thought.

The election at Campbell passed off quietly, but 43 votes being polled—30 "For" and 13 "Against" the bonds. It barely carried by the necessary two-thirds vote. It seemed difficult to get an election board, even at $3 apiece. The board that served was composed of Dr. A. B. Townsend and E. M. Righter, Inspectors; B. Campbell and W. H. Moore, Judges; L. J. Stratton and J. H. Campbell, Clerks; A. E. Howe and E. C. Hurlbert, Ballot Clerks. The officers had little to do and amused themselves by consuming Stratton bananas, etc.

Charles Townsend got a chip of steel in his eyeball which caused him a great deal of pain before it was removed. Dr. Cooper succeeded in finding the piece.

The democrats met on Monday evening and nominated as delegates to be voted for at the primary election, A. E. Howe and Ed. Gilman. A club was also organized for the campaign.

Sunday evening, the usual bi-monthly union service at the Congregational Church, Rev. Atkinson preaching the sermon on account of Rev. Needham being at Berkeley assisting in a church dedication. Services at both churches in the morning.

The work at the cannery this week has been rather irregular on account of the shortage of peaches which should have arrived from the Marysville country. At the depot things have been fairly lively, from four to seven cars per day being shipped of peaches.

Prunes are ripening up very rapidly and in a few days you will see some of this choice fruit come to the drier. Everything is in readiness to handle a large crop. There are many growers who will dry their own prunes this year, judging from the number of trays being purchased. Prunes are showing a fine size and will no doubt "sugar up" well with a few more warm days. The chances are that prune pickers will be hard to get at the critical time and that is the reason that Japanese have to be taken.

Unnecessary Expense.

Acute attacks of colic and diarrhoea come on without warning and prompt relief must be obtained. There is no necessity of incurring the expense of a physician's service in such cases if Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. A dose of this remedy will relieve the patient before the doctor could arrive. It has never been known to fail, even in the most severe and dangerous cases and no family should be without it. TOWN ADORNMENT.

EFFECT OF CIVIC IMPROVEMENT AS SEEN IN MISSOURI.

How Women's Clubs and School Children Co-operated in the Cleaning Up Campaign—Communities That Are Most Active in the Work.

While the town beautiful is not alone a Missouri institution, the movement has perhaps advanced further in that state than in any other, says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. There are two causes for this. One is the club women of the state, the other the school children. Co-operating effectively with these are mayors and sometimes city councils of the towns and civic improvement societies.

Last, but not least, are the people. The people, as a whole, have responded readily to the campaign of education carried on by the women and children. They have not been lacking in the desire to beautify their surroundings. It was only a question of how. So when the club women resolved themselves into a committee on ways and means and devised practicable methods whereby streets, alleys, back yards and lawns could be made artistically and regularly beautiful the people have responded.

There are in Missouri 126 women's clubs and 1,100 in the National federation, with a membership of 4,000. In addition to these are many clubs of a local or state-wide character. All of these clubs, whether they are federated or not, whether their purpose is literary, musical or general improvement, are interested in the town beautiful movement. Many clubs are organized for that purpose alone.

Prominent among the clubs that have taken an active interest in the civic beautification movement is one at Trenton, a town of 7,000 population, in the northern part of the state, which has recently petitioned the mayor to issue a proclamation setting aside an official cleaning up day. The mayor was to ask the citizens to devote a few hours to the cleaning of their yards, alleys and streets and to destroying or having removed all the rubbish and paper that might thus be uncovered.

In addition to this appeal to town pride the Trenton ladies have a series of cash prizes which they offer to children in the wards of the town for the best gardens and most beautiful yards and lawns. Seeds are furnished to all children who enter these contests and a system employed which arouses their pride and competitive spirit.

A decided impulse was given the town beautiful movement a year ago in a number of Missouri towns, and, although it originated from what might be termed a selfish motive, the result has been beneficial to the towns involved. Two new normal school districts had been established. One was in the southeastern part of the state, the other in the northwestern part. There already were three such districts, with schools established.

The new schools were to be built at the town offering two principal inducements—first, a substantial cash and land bonus; second, the most healthful and attractive location and conditions. At once a struggle began between half a dozen or more towns in each of the proposed districts. The wealthier ones had the advantage so far as the bonus was concerned, but the competition for beauty and cleanliness admitted an open field with few favors. A legislative committee was to visit all competing towns and decide which one merited the new school.

Weeks before the visit of the committee the towns were in a fever of activity. Rumors of cleaning up movements spread from one town to another, and the spirit of all was increased. When the week for the visit of the committee came cleanliness had become not next to godliness, but next to a mania.

In the southeast Springfield, Webb City, Lebanon, Arcadia and a number of smaller towns were in the contest. In the northwest Maryville, Stanberry, Savannah, Tarkio, Rock Port and other places waged the war against dirt. Further than that, the towns which already had normal schools, knowing that the locating committee might visit them for inspiration concerning the selection of the two sites for the new schools, began to clean up, and even Columbia, the State university town, put on its dust cap and grabbed a broom. Many of these towns, in addition to mowing their lawns carefully, trimming their trees and cleaning up their alleys and back yards, actually swept the streets with brooms.

Only one of these cleanly and virtuous towns in each district could be rewarded by being selected. However, like the boy in the schoolbook who stopped swearing one day for the love of a dollar and the rest of his life for a higher purpose, the town was benefited. Many of the towns which became so industrious then saw the good effect of the campaign against dirt and have kept it up systematically.

St. Louis, St. Joseph and Kansas City have done something toward civic beauty, but the greatest credit belongs to the smaller towns. It is more possible with them, for they have not, as a rule, the disfiguring and generally discouraging conditions that surround the city campaigners to contend with.

In Macon a women's club has practical charge of the cleaning and sanitary arrangements of the town. It collects money for street cleaning and similar purposes regularly and sees that the work is done, and in addition has many effective plans for beautification and general improvement. Arbor day is generally observed by schools throughout the state, although the observance is due almost wholly to the various individual teachers rather than being a part of the educational propaganda of the teachers of the state as a whole.

"Make Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright suns may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. STATE LECTURER'S DUTIES.

Chiefly For Improvement of Lecture Work In Subordinate Granges.

[Special Correspondence.]

I believe the duty of the state grange lecturer should be chiefly for the improvement of the lecture work in subordinate granges—planning that work in a measure, suggesting methods, regularly furnishing topics for discourse, preparing special day programmes, etc., and in a general way assisting the subordinate lecturers in making their work as effective as possible. Many personal letters should be written where a weak lecturer is located, and at all times let the lecturers feel that the state lecturer is their servant in time of need.

Secondarily comes the field work through picnic addresses, Pomona grange talks, lecturers' conferences and occasionally a visit to a subordinate grange when it is in everyday working order. This field work gives the much needed personal touch to the lecture work, although we hold that of the two the printed page and personal letter can best do our duty. The work of organizing granges should not be expected of a state lecturer unless it be where comparatively few granges exist and the combined force of grange officials in the state is needed to extend the organization. The state lecturer should never lose sight of the fact that the greatest progress our Order can make must come through the subordinate grange, where the rank and file of members are to be helped.

THE GRANGE LIBRARY.

The Influence of Books In the Hands of Patrons.

The fact that so many granges are awakening to the importance of founding grange libraries is a most hopeful sign. We talk a great deal about education in the grange, what it should and should not include. Of this fact we should never lose sight: The greatest thing pertaining to education is to know how to read well. Arithmetic, geography, bookkeeping, all have their place in education. They prepare the child for practical conditions, and to a great extent they develop the mind, as all mental exercise necessarily does. But the mind is really fed through reading. It grows by what it feeds upon, and if fed by the sensational stories of the newspapers and by trashy books it can never gain the heights of excellence. Let the grange library take a more prominent part in the domestic economy of every well regulated grange. Let the grange library become the missing link between the grange and the home. The book in the hands of a Patron should carry on the work begun in the grange meeting.

We should select our books with care, since good books in a library tend to promote moral and intellectual growth. Books cannot be read without exerting some influence. They elevate or degrade; they strengthen or weaken; they add to or subtract from mental force. One man reaps tares, and another gathers golden grain in the same field because of the seed sown somewhere in his early life. Let us have more grange libraries.—New York Grange Bulletin.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

STARTING A PAPER.

Did you ever start a paper
Otherwise than in your mind,
Just to keep yourself from mischief
Or to elevate mankind,
Just to make the world take notice
And to keep the nation straight?
If you haven't you should do so,
For the exercise is great.

Where a long felt want is roaming,
Threatening almost to bite,
You should jump into the harness
And proceed at once to write.
Possibly the world is waiting,
Losing sleep from day to day
And on tiptoe leaning forward
Just to hear what you will say.

There are causes great and noble,
Some perhaps quite near your heart,
That are crying for the paper
That it's up to you to start;
Just before you there is waiting
Maybe riches, surely fame;
Hire a printer and get busy;
That's the way to work the game.

Easier than raising chickens,
If you will the rules observe;
Any one can do the business
If he only has the nerve.
Why delay? You know, dear reader,
In your secret soul, I trow,
You could do it so much better
Than the men who do it now.

He Got Cif.

"Jimmie, you have been such a bad boy that mother will have to whip you."

"I don't mind the whipping myself, mother, but I know that it will hurt you worse than it will me, and t-that's wh-why I'm crying."

An Accident.

"But I thought he was on the water wagon?"
"So he was, but it jolted him off right in front of a saloon."

Tommy's Trouble.

"What's the best thing about going to grandma's, Tommy?"
"Dinner."
"Well, what's the worst?"
"Eating too much."

The Other Way About.

"I suppose you are wondering if marriage is a failure."
"Not at all. A much more perplexing question is up to me."
"What is it?"
"Is single life a success?"

The Way of It.

A man is apt to like a girl
If she displays a dimple fleet
And soft, blown hair with tips a-curl,
A figure dainty and petite.
He couldn't keep from loving such
If he for it were gibbeted;
He certainly would love her much,
No matter who prohibited.

The girl as deftly plays for him
Because she wants him on her list,
And round about her finger slim
She wraps him with a gentle twist.
And well she knows he cares for her
Because she's here and so is he;
The tale she knows were different were
She here and he across the sea.

PRESS NOTES

The W. C. T. U. will meet in the Coffee Club on Wednesday, August 8th, at 3 o'clock.

Miss Harriet Stillson of Palo Alto was visiting the family of Mr. Wakeman the first of the week.

L. J. Stratton and family returned on Thursday from the coast. The editor acknowledges a generous piece of salmon from him.

C. J. Granstrom is home from the Tonopah mines, looking well. His coming was hastened by the threatened strike—not wishing to be there at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Denhart, of Edgerton, Minn., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Gunsolus and family the past week. It is expected that they will return and make Campbell their future home.

The intense itching characteristic of salt rheum and eczema is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. As a cure for skin diseases this salve is unequalled. For sale by Farmers Union.

As an evidence that not all the Eastern people have been scared out of coming here by the earthquake, Mrs. Martinie informs us that she will have as guests to dinner with her on August 12, seven friends from Thayer Institute, near Kansas City, who come to enter Stanford University this fall.

Andrew Johnson and John Peterson are working in Seattle, having returned from Alaska. They found Nome a hard place to find work, there being many idle men there, and as living is very expensive they thought it best to return to the Puget Sound country, having formed a very favorable impression of that locality on the way up. We understand that John Strong is in Montana he not going to Alaska at all. Rev. A. H. Needham has received letters and pictures from his son Clive, who went to Nome at the same time as the others. He struck a good position with a prominent company there and seems to be enjoying life.

Some time since someone entered the premises of J. L. Hagelin and stole a bicycle from one of his buildings, not even being noticed by his dog. The wheel is still missing. During these fruit times when so many strangers are around and when professional "crooks" are just as liable to be among the number, it would be the part of wisdom if doors and windows were kept securely locked, and also keep a sharp lookout for prowlers. In years past burglaries have been committed during the fruit season and it is not altogether unlikely that it may occur this season. Report to Deputy Sheriff Buffington or Deputy Constable Howe any suspicions you might have.

Summer Diarrhoea in Children.

During the hot weather of the summer months the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention, so as to check the disease before it becomes serious. All that is necessary is a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil to cleanse the system. Rev. M. O. Stockland, Pastor of the First M. E. Church, Little Falls, Minn., writes: "We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years and find it a very valuable remedy, especially for summer disorders in children." Sold by Farmers Union, Agent.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

No one can reasonably hope for good digestion when the bowels are constipated. Mr. Chas. Baldwin, of Edwardsville, Ill., says: "I suffered from chronic constipation and stomach troubles for several years, but, thanks to Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, am almost cured." Why not get a package of these tablets and get well and stay well? Price 25 cents. Samples free. Farmers Union, Agent.

OUR SYSTEM

of eye and nerve measurement is the latest and also the best known to the profession, the most humane, the positive, without medicine, without discomfort. Best work, fair prices. Come and see.
